THE CINCINNATI STAR!

ar-Dally Edition, published every day (except Sun-day), by the Star Porlishing Contary, at their office, 250 Walnut Street. Branch Offices, 416 Scott Street, Covington, Ky., and 32 West Washington St., Spring-field, Ohlo.

THE DAILY STAR is served by carriers to subscribe in the city of Cincinnati, and to all the surroundi-cities and towns, for the Chars per week. Sing I COpies, woo casts. By mill, per year, free of per age, so. Fractional parts of a year at the same rat Its circulation is larger than that of any other daily paper published in the State of Ohio. Advertising rates for the three editions, $1.00 per square, or 12% cents per line Agate.

BY TELEGRAPH.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The Supreme Lodge of Knights of Pythias closed their proceedings last night. The most important business transacted was a modification of the shield of the order. REVENUE CHANGES.

The following dismissals of Internal Revenue officers are announced: Gaugers—L. C. Ebenvim, First Indiana; G. M. Campbell, Eighth Illinois; A. M. Everist, J. A. Mead, J. E. Howard, W. J. Bassett, First Missouri; Ed. L. Red-ington and C. F. J. Moeller, First Wis-consin.

The Fire at Norwalk.

Norwalk, Cr., May 22.—The building burned here yesterday was owned by the Fairfield Insurance Company and Lonsburg Bros. and Rockwell & Co., and was occupied by Lonsburg Bros., manufacturers, Comstock Bros., clothiers, the Fairfield Fire Insurance Company, the Common Council and the Old Well Club. All were well insured except the latter. All were well insured except the latter. The total loss is estimated at no less than $150,000. Several other buildings were destroyed.

Chicago News.
CHICAGO, May 22.—The Chicago Tem chicago, May 22.—Ine Chicago Temperance Alliance gave a format welcome at Farwell Hall to the delegates of the Grand Lodge of I. O. G. T. of the World, who are here attending the National Convention. Drs. Leeds, Malins, Aldie, and others are in the delegation. Hon.

Emory A. Storrs, of this city, delivered the address of welcome.

The whisky excitement is now quieter and no further arrests have been made, though warrants are out for the arrest of several Government officials who have neglected their duty.

The Oscela Fire.

Tyronz, PA., May 22.—The confusion is so great and telegraph lines kept so busy with railroad business, that it is impossible to get further particulars. Hundreds of people are homeless, and destitute of clothing and provisions. The burgess of Huntington has been telegraphed to for food and clothing for the sufferers. Relief is badly needed. A large number of cars and many feet of trestle-work on the railroad have been destroyed. The shipment of coal will be delayed at least ten days. The fire is still raging in the woods. "At Snowshoe City several houses and a number of cars and trestle-works have been destroyed."

DUBLIN, May 22.—Judge Keogh, before whom Moore's election petition was tried, has decided that the late John Mitchel was disqualified from holding a scat in Parliament because he was an alien and a felon. An appeal to the Court of Common Pleas was granted, and the case will come up again next week.

Specials to the Star.

DETROIT, May 22.—Judge Keogh, before whom Moore's election petition was tried, has decided that the late John Mitchel was disqualified from holding a scat in Parliament because he was an alien and a felon. An appeal to the case will come up again next week.

Specials to the Star.

DETROIT, May 22.—Jas. Nugent, of Erie, fell under the cars to-day, and was stilled.—At Mt. Clemons, last night, Robert Lucker was killed by inhaing gas from a salt well.—John H. Thomas and trestle-works have been destroyed.

NEW YORK, May 22.—A special from Tyrone, Penn., says the fires of the forests in the vicinity of Osceola are burning fiercely. Last night the town of Osceola was completely destroyed. Only two buildings, the Methodist and Catholic churches remain.

The only loss of life was one woman, who was burnt in a log cabin in the forest. The escape of the people from Osceola was a miracle. The people were loaded into box-cars and the train dashed through four miles of flames to Phillinsburg.

Phillipsburg.
The cars caught fire several times, and The cars caught fire several times, and the ties were burning in several places as the train passed. Four trips were made before all the people were safe. In the afternoon the village of Hontsedale caught fire, and over half the town was destroyed. The fire is still raging in the woods for miles around.

The saw-mills of Whoop, Harris & Co. and Harvey Barnes & Co., near Phillipsburg, were totally destroyed.

Trains from Clearfield and Tyrone loaded with provisions arrived at Phillipsburg, where the inhabitants of both Osceola and Hontsedale are located, and other relief measures have been already taken. The total loss will be over three million dollars.

DENVER, COL., May 22.—Jacob Snyder ras murdered by Joshua C. Bishop, near Georgetown, yesterday evening. Snyder was a well-known capitalist of Denver, and one of the banking firm of Denver, and one of the banking firm of Comins, Snyder & Co., also part owner of the famous Pelican Mine. Difficulties between the Dives and Pelican Mines are constantly occurring, and out of this grew the murder. Snyder, while going to the mine on horse-back was met by Bishop. Words passed, when Snyder turned and ran, pursued by Bishop. who overtook him. pursued by Bishop, who overtook him, knocked him down, and deliberately shot him. Bishop took to the mountains. $5,700 reward is offered for him, dead or alive. It is supposed that Bishop is concealed in a deep recess of the Dives min backed by a number of desperate men heavily armed.—Gen. Logan arrived last night. Vice-President Wilson comes tonight, and will be officially received.— The libel suit of Jacob C. Downing against the Denver Tribune Association is progressing in the District Court, The amount of damage claimed is $100,000. The charge of the Tribune was concernelection frauds.

The Races. LOUISVILLE, May 22.—The weather yesterday was gloomy and the attendance light. The first race, Tennessee stake, for two-year-olds, $15, play or pay, Association adding $350; dash of three-quarters of a mile; 30 entries; colts, 90 lbs.; fillies, $7 lbs. At the call, fifteen came to the string; Vagrant the favorite in the pools, A. Keene Richards' Grit second. Williams & Owing's Creedmore ond, Williams & Owing's Creedmonthird; though the field stood fair against third; though the field stood fair against the named nags. The start was good, but soon strung out, Vagrant leading, closely pushed by Creedmore, who came winner in the the mud in 1:22½. Summary: Tennessee stake; dash of three, quarters of a mile, Williams & Owing's Greedmore Asteroid, out of Target, first; G. W. Stewart's Tecalo Gien Athol, out of Volga, second; T. J. Nichol's Vagrant Virgil, out of Lazy, third.

The second race was for the gentlemen's cup, valued at $250, members of any club to ride, 169 lbs minimum; a dash of one and one-eighth miles; but two gentlemen offered to ride in the rain and mud, with this summary: Gentlemen's gentlemen offered to ride in the rain and mud, with this summary: Gentlemen's cup, dash one and one-eighth miles: A. Trigg, Louisville Jockey Club, rode Misfortune, first; John H. Coster, American Jockey Club, rode Oxmore, second.

The third race was an impromptu substitute for a hurdle race, mile heats, free for all ages, for a purse of $440, with four entries. The track was heavy and the betting lively. Bill Bruce selling in pools. entries. The track was heavy and the betting lively, Bill Bruce selling in pools at $500; Vanderbilt, $300; field, $100. In the first heat Bruce hud the lead, closely followed by Mainsail, and others trailing; won by Bruce by less than half a length in 1:52; Little Fiirt distanced. The odds were increased on the second heat, but the contest not being very close, winning handily in 1:58½; Vanderbilt distanced.

close at 9 o'clock this evening, but if the ladies will listen to the popular demand they will continue it for several days longer.

List of Patents

nished for 25 cepts:

162.912. Ornamentation of Show-Cards.
Levi C. Goodale. Filed March 13, 1875.
The hereinbefore-described process for forming signs, show-cards, etc., by first conform to the shape of the frame represented, substantially and for the pur-

Louisa Keith, Aug. Reimer and Stefana Schmidt, Carl O. Kranke and Caroline Jacobi, Joseph McSalzer and Charlotte

About the Home.

XENIA, O., May 21, 1875. On the 20th inst. an article appeared in the Cincinnati Daily Gazette, reflect ing on the management of the Ohio So

VOL. 7.

NEWS FROM THE OLD WORLD. MADKID, May 22.—At a conference of members of the late Cortes, held if this city yesterday, it was resolved to promote a union of all the monarchial parties to support King Alfonso, to maintain the integrity of Spanish territory, and to obtain a return to parliamentary liberties and privileges. liberties and privileges.

LONDON, May 22.—A special correspondent of the Daily Telegraph reports that the German Embassador at Brussels has been instructed to request the Belgian Government to prohibit religious processions, and that the object of this maneuver is the overthrow of the Belgian Cabinet. The correspondent guarantees the accuracy of the report.

The Examiner mentions a rumor that Disracti is to resign at the close of the session, and believes there is foundation session, and believes there is foundation for it, as the Premier's disability for continuous work is damaging the Government. An understanding, however, exists among his supporters that he stall not be replaced until he voluntarily resigns.

A dispatch to the Standard, from Rome, says the Italian Government has ordered the removal of all Bishops who have not received $\frac{1}{2}$ royal exequator, indorsing their appointment. The Archbishop of Palermo has already been notified to leave the Same eave his See.

Paris, May 22.—MM. Laboulaye, Cezunue, Waddington and Vacherat, and the other remaining members of the Committee of Thirty, have resigned, and a new Committee will be elected on Tuesday, to which Minister Dufaure's bills will be referred.

BRUSSELS, May 22.—The Tribunal at Liege, which has had the alleged plot to assassinate Prince Bismarck under in-vestigation, has dismissed the charges against Duchesne.

DUBLIN, May 22 .- Judge Keogh, before killed.—At Mt. Clemens, last night, Hobert Lucker was killed by inhaing gas from a salt well.—John H. Thomas was yesterday convicted of the murder of his wife and step-daughter, on April 28, and sentenced to the State prison at hard labor for life.

CLINTON, IA., May 22.-An event of unusual importance to this community occurred yesterday. The laying of the first rail of the Chicago, Clinton and Western Railway, projected from this ity to Oskaloosa.

DES MOINES, May 22 .- The Episcopal Convention to elect a Bishop will meet at Cedar Rapids next Wednesday.— It is reported on good authority that O'Connor, the Cass county flend, mur-dered a comrade in the copper mines in Michigan several years ago, and that his real name is Ryan.

St. Paul, May 22.—Col. Fred. Grant is here on his way to the Big Horn country via Bismarck and the Missouri and Yellowstone rivers. This is not the Custer expedition which is preparing to leave here soon.—The Pioneer Press publishes dispatches from a considerable number of localities in all parts of the State relative to the grasshoppers. The purport of these reports is that there are no grasshoppers in the district devastated by them last year, nor in any part of Minnesota north. of these reports is that there are no grasshoppers in the district devastated by them last year, nor in any part of Minnesota, north, south, east or west, except in a very small area and in comparatively small numbers, and are confined to the group of countles on or near SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—The Second Brigade National Guards has gone into encampment for three days at Camp consisting of the Minnesota river, consisting of the small district of Blue consisting of the s Earth county, some townships of Brown, Nicollet and Le Sueuer, with some very small and public detachments of skir-mishers in Mower and McLeod countles. There seems to be no danger of any serious damage from locusts this season, but that the raids of the pests, if there are any, will be light.

NEBRASKA CITY, May 22.-Grasshoppers are still in some localities but are not general. Growing crops are promising well, although rain is much needed.

COLUMBUS, O., May 22 .- It is announced that the Sixteenth Annual Convention of the Ohio Sunday-school Union will be held at Newark, O., June 8. Clifton W Nichols, of Springfield, will deliver an address the first day of the session, on "The Compensation of Christian Work." It is expected that each county school and society will send at least one representative. R. Scowden, Corresponding Secretary, Gallon, Ohio, will issue cre-dentials to the delegates.

Sunday-School Convention.

Graduates-Change of Time-The Canal,

DAYTON, O., May 22 .- There will be wo graduates from the Central High School at the coming commencement. A general change of time-tables of all the roads centering here hat been an-nounced, to take effect next Sunday, the 23d.

South.

The Knights of Pythias of Dayton will have a full dress-parade next Monday evening. They will go on an excursion to Cleveland Tuesday evening.

A school-house, to cost $50,000, will be erected in the Eleventh ward during the Theodore Tilton was caught in a ludicrous fix the other day. He was sitting in front of the office of one of his connect, Mr. Morris, about ten o'clock in the morning, When Victoria Woodbull and Colonel Blood entered the rear office. "Don't let them see me; I don't want them to know I'm here," said Mr. Tilton, as he ran into a little closet, closing the door behind him. Woodhull pushed her chair against the door and talked with Mr. Morris about being a witness. The interview lasted an hour and all the while Tilton was half smothered. At eleven o'clock the lawyers went to the court room. Mrs. Woodhull stayed and did not seem disposed to move. She was likely to be called as a witness in the afternoon, and had made up her mind to remain in the office. At last Tilton escaped. He arrived in the court room late and breathless. Theodore Tilton was caught in a lu-

WHAT THE WIRES WHISPER. James Kimmons' house, near Bucyrus, burned yesterday.

W. W. Crawtord, a Cleveland coal merchant, died yesterday. General C. H. Smith thinks the fron-tier troubles are over for the present.

The losses by Abraham Jackson, the missing Boston lawyer, will reach $300, Tiffin Shooting Club hold a tournament on May 26. One hundred dollars in gold is offered for the best shot. Open to all. A temporary injunction has been allowed, restraining the authorities of Lebanon, O., from building the proposed City Hall.

One Clark, of Loogootee, who had stolen a thousand dollars, was arrested in Louisville yesterday and taken back for trial.

The trial of Frederick Sullivan, Fort Wayne, for the alleged detalcation in the Express office, has been in progress for two days.

The dwelling of Mr. Robert D. Davidson, of Wampum, Pennsylvania, was consumed by hre with all the furniture. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

S. Graves Fry, of Philadelphia, has been arrested at the instance of Bowen & Fox, brokers, on the charge of embez-ziement, in connection with an overissue of railroad shares.

An attempt to wreck a passenger train on the Wabash road, near Antwerp, O. was frustrated by a freight train coming along shead of the express, discovering the obstruction in time to remove it.

Col. Fred Grant is at St. Paul, on his way to the Big Horn country, via Bismarck, and Missouri and Yellowstone rivers. This is the route of the Custer expedition, which is preparing to leave

The Government is advised by official dispatches from representatives in Europe, that no apprehensions are en-termined of the peace between France and Germany being disturbed for the Professor T. C. Newhall, of the Ohio Agricultural and Medical College, de-livered an address at the City Hall, Tiffin, last evening. Subject: "Sound." The hall was well filled and the address was line.

There will be a meeting of the officers and soldiers of the Sixty-night Regiment at Winchester, Indiana, June 11, to form an association, and to arrange for a grand reunion, to be held in Richmond early in September.

John Stelz, of Circleville, was sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary for bigamy. Isaac Decker, colored, of the same place, indicted for grand larceny, escaped from the county jail. The Sheriff offers a reward for his return.

Jacob Temple, jr., aged fitty years, a weil-to-do farmer, living just south of Carlisle, O., near Post Town, shot himself through the head with a rifle this morning, causing instant death, while laboring under a fit of temporary insanity, superinduced by ill health and seemingly unfavorable condition of his crops.

Mayor Gilson, of Zanesville, returning the license. Representatives of Memphis New Orleans, St. Louis and Philadel-phia houses were present at the meet-By the will of the late John H. Towns of Phitadelphia, the University of Pennsylvania are made residuary legatees, and as such will receive over three hundred thousand dollars immediately on the settlement of the estate. The Uninersity has also a reversionary interest in the estate, which may ultimately make the total bequest to that institution over one million dollars. This money is to be beld as part of the endowment fund, and the income is to be applied solely to the salaries of the professors.

E. C. Wells, for many years a prominent merchant of Youngstown, late Superintendent of the Youngstown Rolling Mill Company, and widely known among iron dealers, died yesterday afternoon of nervous debility. By his urgent request, the operation of transfusion of blood was successfully performed on him Friday. successfully performed on him Friday morning, as a last resort, but he was so far gone that the shock was too great, and he died soon after. He had been a resident of Youngstown for twenty-five years, and greatly aided its growth in prosperity. He will be buried with Ma-sonic honors on Sunday.

We have often heard of men prowling We have often heard of men prowling around in their sleep, and a few times in our career have heard of love-sick youths rising and clasping the bed post in a tender embrace, but until recently our ears were never startled by the astounding intelligence that a calf had so far departed from its nature as to engage in any sompambulistic performance. The The water will be let in the canal this evening. There is a large number of boats here, heavily laden, ready to go following statement: Last Wednesday. following statement: Last Wednesday when the said calf had yielded to the somniferous influence of when the said calf had yielded to the somniferous influence of a hearty dinner and was tying on the grass, a sudden notion of perambulation seemed to take possession of its dreaming faculties, and with one bound he arose like an extemporaneous speaker and ascended the steps leading to the hall. After promenading as long as he desired, he bent his steps in the direction of the parlor, which place he entered with a little less ceremony than a boy bringing in coal, and advancing to the center of the room swept all the books, photographs and cards from the table with his caudal appendage, and walked out on the porch, went half way down the steps, turned round and walked out on the porch, went half way down the steps, turned round and walked into the sitting-room, where he might have enjoyed himself but for his unfortunate tail, which came in contact with the fire. He must have suffered greatly before he awoke, as his indistinct mutterings testified. But nevertheless he continued to sleep until his tail was nearly broiled.

Queen Victoria should at once make Paul Boyton a Kuight of the Bath, as he can't become a Prince of Whales.

Alluding to the sensation caused in Paris by the report that the Marquis de Caux had been killed in a duel in St. Petersburg, the Pail Mall Gazette says: Fletcher, $6; No. 21, by Miss Rauchtuss, "Further particulars of the sad event have been received, which, to a certain extent, mitigate its terrors. The marquis, it seems, was not mortally wounded, and is still allve; he has, indeed, escaped without a single scratch, owing fought no duel at all. By latest accounts he was at Vienna in the enjoyment of excessiont health. With the exception, however, of the encounter not having occurred, and the marquis being at Vienua instead of St. Petersburg, the original account is perfectly true.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

THE Centennial Fair at Exposition

THE Centennial Fair at Exposition Hall remains open this evening, the la-dies having decided not to close with the afternoon exhibition, as formerly announced.

THE quarterly Union meeting which was to have taken place at Cliuton-street Presbyterian Church on the night of Sunday, the 30th of May, will take place to-morrow night instead under the charge of Rev. Mr. French.

THE question of smoke consumption in Cincinnati is beginning to assume a practicable shape. Several companies are now being formed for the purpose are now being formed for the purpose of manufacturing smoke consumers, and the Board of Exposition Commissioners have decided to allow a premium for the best consumers placed on exhibition next fail. The Board of Trade Committee appointed for the purpose will shortly make a detailed report concerning the proposed ordinance, to make it obligatory upon manufacturing establishments to have consumers attached to their chimneys. enameling, printing, or painting upon the surface of sheet metal the desired lettering, surrounded by the representa-tion of a frame, and then striking up the portion of said plate covered by the lat-ter, so as to cause its outer surface to to their chimneys.

Nathaniei Wright.

A meeting of the prominent members of the Cincinnati Bar was held at 10 o'clock this morning, in Room No. 2 of the Court of Common Pleas, for the purpose of taking action in regard to the death of Nathaniel Wright. A large attendance of members was present. The death of Nathaniel Wright. A large attendance of members was present. The meeting was called to order by appointing Judge Fox as Chairman. Mr. S. J. Thompson acted as Secretary.

The Chairman addressed the meeting in a few words, touching on the life of the deceased and the loss through his the deceased and the loss through his rally bent, connected to each other sub-rally bent sub-rally bent sub-rally bent sub-rally bent sub-rally bent sub-r In a few words, touching on the life of the deceased and the loss through his death the bar had sustained. He was followed by Messrs. Scarborough, Judge Coffin, J. Woodruff, Judge Hoadly, F. Bait, Ex-Gov. Noyes, W.S. Groesbeck and others. The following committee, consisting of Messrs. Taft, Ex-Governor Noyes, T. D. Lincoln, Judge Caidwell, Judge Coffin, R. King and F. Bail, were then appointed, who drew up the following resolutions:

Whereas, Nathaniel Wright, who for more than half a century has been an honored and respected member of the bar, and has finished his course on earth, Resolved, That the absolute integrity able to contemplate his long career as one complete, symmetrical and beautiful human life.

Bibby and Engena B. Atkinson, William Stave and Mary Lawlor, James Bibby and Engena B. Atkinson, William Stave and Mary Levis, Ernet Groen.

Resolved, That the absolute integrity of purpose which lay at the foundation of his character sustained his entire career—a career commenced in his native State with successful endeavors after useful knowledge and self-culture, and continued with unabated zeal as he left continued with unabated 22st as he left his early home, moving westward and finally settled in Cincinnati, where his character matured and expanded, and where now, that he is dead, we are able to contemplate his long career as one complete, symmetrical and beauti-tial human life.

Resolved, That in professional life he possessed an honorable ambition, a strong and even anxious sense of responsibility to his clients and fidelity to the court, a powerful and analytical mind for legal investigations, with clear-kess and cogency in argument, and an industry and perseverance which secured to him the hignest grade of professional success; while to the young members of the bar he was kind and considerate as a father, answering their inquiries freely with the best advice; and in private and social life modest, gentle, affectionate, but always maniy, always reasonable, always wise. That the close of such a career would be an impressive and important event in any community, and would be long remembered in this as an irreparable loss, but that his example, though dead, will continue to teach the living how they may most nearly approach the perfection of human character amid the trials of earth.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the Court, and that a copy be presented to the family of the deceased.

The Contennial Fair.

In spite of the bad weather of last evening the Ladies' Fair at Exposition Hail was largely attended. Such an opportunity of seeing the whole world represented so thoroughly and honestly unspection.

The Centennial Fair.

In spite of the bad weather of last evening the Ladies' Fair at Exposition Hall was largely attended. Such an opportunity of seeing the whole world represented so thoroughly and honestly under one roof is seldom presented, and the public seems to understand and appreciate this fact. Cincinnati is taking Mosler, T. H. Armstrong and Belle Lemon, Horace Herider and Martha J. Gault, Jno. McHale and Maggie O'Brien. T. J. GETTIER, M. L. Clerk. preciate this fact. Cincinnati is taking the lead in this as she does in all mat-ters of culture, and the Centennial Baters of culture, and the Centennial Bazar is likely to prove the most successful entertainment of the kind ever held in this city, and the most successful and complete in all particulars of any held for this purpose in the United States.
Mrs. Gillespie, who is at the head of the Women's Department of the Centennial, says that it is the greatest success so far of any she has yet visited, and is so much pleased with some portions that diers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home. the late meeting of the Board of much pleased with some portions that she will transport them bodily to the Philadelphia Centennial. others appointed in their places. The Directors deemed it best to make the

The two prominent features of the whote affair are the collections of relics and antiquities and the elegant costuming of the ladies, who are working so faithfully for the success of the immense affair. Of the former, the number is so great that any list of reasonable in the success. great that any list of reasonable length would utterly fail to do justice to the would utterly fail to do justice to the excellence of the collection; while of the latter, any special mention of individuals would only be an injustice to the others, whom for lack of space we should be obliged to leave unnoticed. We can, therefore, only call attention to the two departments in general, and advise our readers to attend and investigate and particularize for themselves. Of all the booths or departments representing a country or section of country, not one would prove unworthy of the whole evening's study, while taken as a glorious whole the collection is something seldom witnessed and the occasion one seldom witnessed and the occasion on to be long remembered by those who attend,

Among the special features last evening was a sale of china decorated by the ladles connected with the enterprise.
The sales amounted to nearly $400, and will be continued to day. The following are the names of the artists whose works were disposed of, and the prices at which the articles were knocked down:

By Miss McLaughlin—No. 1, $15; No.
2, $20; No. 3, $14 50; No. 4, $20; No. 5, $15; No. 6, $20; Ro. 56, $10; No. 58, $8;
No. 57, $10; No. 50, by Mrs. Leonard, $10;
No. 12, by Mrs. Harrison, $11; No. 63, by Mrs. Hinkle, $12; No. 52 by Mrs. Hinkle

Star Poblishing Company, and malled, fr Star Poblishing Company, and malled, fr age, at $1.00 per year. It is a large eighter containing 49 columns of reading matter, cheapest paper of its size published in this cheapest paper of its size published in this Barra or Abventume.—15 cents per line, each liner-tion, agate measure. Three months, 1256 cents per line. Discount of 5 per cent. on 56 column; 10 per cent. on 1 column.

ADVERTISEMENTS, for either Werket or Tra-Datay, must lake the run of the paper and be properly classified. Extra displays, specific and Business Notices, will be authorit to advance. No objectionable matter will be admitted at any price whatever. NO. 121

NEWS FROM POINTS AROUND.

THE CINCINNATI STAR:

DAYTON, KY .- On account of the rain, DAYTON, AY.—On account of the rain, the moonlight excursion on the Bessis Pearl was postponed to this evening. Every arrangement for music and refreshments has been made, and all can feel sure of enjoying a delightful even-

Rev. Mr. Coons will preach in the Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning at the usual hour. After service a congregational meeting is to be held, at which it is desirable that as many mem-which it is desirable that as many members of the congregation as possible be present, as matters of great importance to the church are to be considered.

Until further notice, there will be service at St. John's Episcopal Church regularly every Sunday moraing at 11 o'clock and evening at half-past seven o'clock. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Elwei, will preach to-morrow moraing and evening.

HAMILTON.-The Democratic and Re-

Hamilton.—The Democratic and Republican Mass Conventions are in session at Opera Hall and Becket's Hall today. No nominations had been made at the close of our report.

The number of births in Hanover and Fairfield townships during the year past were 73, and the number of deaths 40.

Jacob Temple, a highly respected citizen of Post Town, comm.tted suicide yesterday by shooting himself through the top of the head with a shot-gun, by putting his foot on the end of the ramrod, which he pressed against the trigger. He was found by one of the section men on the railroad, about a quarter of a mile above the station, and life had evidently been extinct for some time. An inquest was held by the Justice of the Peace in the vicinity, and a verdict of suicide while laboring under a fit of despondency was rendered. The deceased leaves a wire and several children.

Avondate.—At an adjenting meeting Issued from the United States Fatent Office to citizens of Cincinnati for the week ending May 20, 1875. Furnished for The Star from the office of J. McC. Perkins & Co., counselors-at-law and solicitors for American and foreign patents, 513 Seventh street, Washington, D. C. Copies of the drawings and specifications of any patent in this list furnished for 25 cents:

AVONDALE.—At an adjectined meeting of the Council Mayor Johnston presided, and all the members were present except Mr. West. A petition from G. W. B. and Joseph Cleimay, praying for the vacation of Grove street from Rockdale, to Forest avenue, was received, and the Clerk instructed to give the customary notice for six consecutive week. Clerk instructed to give the customary notice for six consecutive weeks. Messes. Collins & Herron, attorneys for William Tallant, presented a petition, asking Council to accept the dedication of certain streets, as laid out in the plat of subdivision of his property on Forest avenue. Mr. Herron was accorded the floor, and he addressed Council with reference to said matter.

Mr. Kittredge offered a resolution for the compromise of the claim against W. and B. Tallant for the improvement of Forest avenue for $2.500, which was

Forest avenue for $2,500, which

Mr. Herron, on behalf of the Tallants, accepted the proposition of com, fomise.

An ordinance was passed establishing the grade of Forest avenue from the Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage Beenses were issued since our last report:
Pat. O'Toole and Mary Lawlor, James Bibby and Eugena B. Atkinson, William Stevens and Mary Felix, Ernst Grostuck and Catnarine Stearn, Charles Matthews and Matte J. Hopper, Ernst H. Elbrecht and Lizzie J. Meirose, Frank Haemer and Oshilan Frich, John R. Marshall and Amanda E. Clements, Chas. Schilling and Lena Weymann, Lewis Ablers and Sophia Lindemann, Thomas Toohey and Ann Taylor, Albert Pohlmann, and Carrie Rutierer, Theo. Fay and Magdalena Rheinboldt, Theo. H. A. Wrede and Flora J. Schwarz, Geo. W. S. Bates and Anna Russeil, John W. west line of Main avenue to the east curb of Washington avenue. This change curb of Washington avenue. This change in this grade between the original grade is slight, being made solely for the purpose of making the grade uniform from Main to Washington avenue, thereby beautifying the avenue, and greatly benefiting the proporty.

An ordinance was passed to improve Woodward avenue, and the Clerk was instructed to advertise for proposals for making said improvement.

Mr. Kittredge presented an ordinance to accept the plat of Tallant's subdivision, which passed.

Adjourned. Mitchell avenue will probably be the name of the new avenue proposed to connect Avoudale with Spring Grove, sion, which passed.

LEXINGTON, KY.—Col. Wm. R. Estill, of Fayette county, died at his residence on Wednesday evening, aged about sixty-three years.

The bi-monthly grand mass-meeting of the Sabbata-school of the First Baptist Church will be held to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the church on Short street, Col. W. C. P. Breckingidge will at the meeting held on the 28th of March. Capt. J. Lawrence Jones will also de-liver an address. The musical part of the exercises will be under charge of the elder Prof. Saxton. A large gathering is anticipated.

In the Circuit Court on Thursday the murder case of M. H. Parker was called. Col. Frank Watters was chosen special Judge in the case. The defendant filed his affidavit for a change of venue which was granted to Woodford county.

Rents have come down very matert. ally in this city during the past winter. One business-house that formerly rented for $1,800 per year, is now reuting for $600. Owners of dwelling-houses are very reluctant to reduce reuts, and will not consent to do so until their houses are tenantiess several months. The City Council met on Thursday evening in special session. The Southern Railroad ordinance was passed. General Huston opposed the petition of the Base-ball Club, asking the use of the City Park grounds to play their games in, on the plea that the Jences and trees would be relief by their life. would be ruined by the little boys whom, the General said, "the very devil aimse." could not stop."

The Courier-Journal of yesterday contained an account of Judge Goodioe's rea ception in Louisville on Thursday everng: "The beauty of Louisville assemt bled at the Louisville Hotel last evening in attendance on the brilliant reception of Judge and Mrs. Speed S. Goedloe, of Lexington. In anticipation of the elegant reception—of Louisville's elite, Mr. Kean had the dining-room and parlors of his hotel decorated very handsomely with floral and evergreen displays. The word "Welcome," formed in exquisite style of beautiful buds and evergreens, appeared on different parts of the reception half, and was, of course, read with pleasure by the guests, a number of whom had agers, three officers were removed and change, otherwise it would not have been done. The Superintendent, Prof. W. P. Kerr, has managed the institution very acceptably in every respect. He makes most of the purchases for the institution himself, and is very careful to secure good articles of clothing and provisions, and will not suffer an inferior article of anything to be used—and always have to the best advantage be posby the guests, a number of whom had come from Chicago, St. Louis, Nashville, Frankfort, Lexington and eisewhere, ways buys to the best advantage he pos-sibly can, and keeps himself posted in the market prices, so that financially he looks to the interest of the State. in response to invitations received.

Mrs. Goodice is a very handsome lady, with dark eyes and hair of the same hue. Morally, the condition of the Home was never as good as it is now, and the people of the State may well congratulate themselves that these children are She was elegantly dressed tast evening in rich, golden-tinted satin, elaborately covered with point lace, marguerites and autumn leaves entwined in lovely so highly favored. Our ministers hold divine service on the Sabbath, and an excellent Sabbath-school is now in succovered with point lace, marguerites and autumn leaves entwined in lovely style. Mrs. Goodloe's two daughters, Lila and Sadie, aged respectively twelve and thirteen, were present, and attracted much attention, their dancing being much admired. The ladies in attendance were attired in new and costly toilets ordered for the occasion. The supper, consisting of all the delicacies and ices to be had, was greatly relished, the table with its pretty floral decorations doubtless lending desire to the guests. After supper the german was danced, and highly enjoyed by witnesses as well as participants. Mr. Blum, of the Austrian Legation, was among the forcial or in attendance."

The dogs of Lexington have commenced to attack men. On Thursday evening Mr. Munley was bitten on the leg by a dog that jumped from a yard on him while passing along the street. excellent Sabbath-school is now in suc-cessful operation. The public school in connection with the Home is superior to the Union Schools of Xeuia, and prob-ably unsurpassed by any in the State. So that physically, mentally and moral-ly, these children, the sons and daugh-ters of fallen heroes, are highly favored. A number of gentlemen that frequently visit the Home say that political affairs are seldom referred to, and that the Superintendent does not "make himself very distasteful to our citizens by his constant reference to politics in his con-versations and dealings with them." Every true friend of the Home can ob-serve that the Superintendent, Steward, serve that the Superintendent, Steward, Matrons and Teachers give their undi-vided attention to the interests of the children and labor faithfully to perform